

Subject name: _____

Page Totals: 1: _____

ID number: _____

2: _____

3: _____

4: _____

GRAND TOTAL

TOTAL IUs
POSSIBLE 157

FIRE (C)

Mrs. Wilson lived alone on a small farm in Kansas. She was a by herself farmhouse independent strong-willed person and refused to leave the farm, even though her son stubborn woman determined lady he kept after her to move to town. He wanted her to rent an always tried to come into city get wanted to leave in to live been asking tried to talk live pleaded tried to convince trying to coax apartment near his house. Whenever he told her that she next to him home Mrs. Wilson close to me closer to he nearby should move, she just answered that the Lord would take care of her said God protect me told knew provide

One hot muggy day, there was a terrible thunderstorm. Suddenly humid horrible storm all of a sudden bad raining really hard there was a brilliant flash and a loud crashing noise. When Mrs. bright lightning thunder bang crack lady she Wilson looked out the bedroom window, she saw flames coming from noticed fire out of the barn. She ran to the kitchen to call the fire department.

Mrs. Wilson went in into to telephone to dial to ring to use fireman company but the phone was out of order. Just as she was headed it telephone line dead knocked out not working out taken out couldn't get through no longer works started going walking was about on her way was leaving went came exiting out the door to go to the neighbors, two fire trucks raced outside house to run next door firemen engines pull/ed/ing rolled up just that quick shortly approaching quickly arrived quickly came showed up into the yard. In a few minutes the fire was out, and none of the in farm within moments blaze took care of quickly cows had been hurt. When her son heard about the fire, livestock injured harmed killed damaged died Mrs. Wilson's found out it this he told her again that she should move into town, son said/says requested suggested pleaded begged asked tried to convince implored wanted talked mom her you come to town to city should have come come back coming because she was(n't) safe alone on the farm. "But," she you safety on her own here there Mrs. Wilson lady by herself by yourself answered, "I told you that the Lord would take care of me."

made statement responded said him God will provide look out would help protect looking after her

The same lightning bolt that started the fire also hit the fire alarm set began caused tripped set got struck bell box on the corner and called the fire department.”

call box at contacted firemen trucks engines company station dialed sent signaled alerted got notified ringing summoned triggered alarmed brought

